Hey Allan,

I just got back last night. I can prioritize getting those PV to you hopefully later this evening, but tomorrow morning at the latest.

Pleasure hangin with you and your group again for another successful survey...however circuitous the route to success was. ;)

Hi, Kersey.

I hope you were able to relax after the LA-2 survey AND after recovering the lost SPI-PVP. I was wondering if I could get a couple of photos from our DDT barrel disposal area transect. I wanted to take a closer look at some of these photos after reading the paper on this dumping.

Thank you for your attention to this.
-Allan
